FICTION BOOK REVIEW

Directions: Fill out this form completely, neatly, and in blue or black ink.

Define the following words that might be important in understanding fiction novels.

1. foreshadowing- the author's use of hints or clues to tell about up-coming events. Used to 1) create suspense and 2) make ending believable
2. omniscient - all-knowing
3. suspense (rising action)- the growing excitement while waiting for the resolution
4. genre- a category (type) of literature (science fiction, romance, poetry)
5. conflict- the problem to be solved

Cite your source correctly. Books should be cited exactly like this:

Author's last name, Author's first name. Title. City of Publication: Publishing Company, year of publication. Print.
(If you are handwriting a book title, underline it instead of using italics.)
Jacobs, W.W. The Monkey's Paw. London: Harper and Brothers Publishing, 1902. Print.

Number of pages: 249

Answer the following questions in complete sentences.

1. From whose point of view (first person, third person, omniscient author) is this story told and how do you know?
This book is written from the omniscient author's point of view. I know this because all the characters' thoughts are revealed to the reader.
2. Where and when does this story primarily take place (setting)?
This story takes place in England, probably in the early 1900s at the home of the White family, the main characters.
